

CORE LOGIC Parcel License for data received between Sept 23, 2016 and Sept 22, 2017*5.11 HIFLD-Parcel Data Base License

NGA will have the following specific data rights: Non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual, non-transferable rights with respect to HIFLD Parcel Data. NGA will have unrestricted right to access, use, copy, modify, reproduce, release, distribute, perform, display, prepare derivative works, or disclose the HIFLD Parcel Data in executing NGA's Homeland Security mission. NGA will have the right to provide the HIFLD Parcel Data, with these same rights, to other Federal and State Government users (including the National Guard Bureau), and their contractors, in the execution of their Homeland Security, Homeland Defense and Disaster Preparedness missions.

The Base license will include Paragraphs 5.11.1, 5.11.2, and 5.11.3.

5.11.1 United States Federal Government Data Release License

All of the data (base data and required updates) shall be provided with a United States Federal Government license, to include the unrestricted right to access, modify, reproduce, release, perform, display, distribute and/or otherwise use the data by all agencies and offices of the Federal Government and its contractors (for Government purposes), to include the National Guard Bureau units, supporting Homeland Security, Homeland Defense, Disaster Preparedness missions. Derivative products created from the dataset will be releasable to mission partners.

5.11.2 Designated State Government Partners Data Release License

The same license rights detailed in paragraph 5.11.1 will be extended to the following state government agencies and any others designated by DHS:

- a) State Fusion Centers
- b) State Emergency Operations Centers (EOCs)
- c) State GIS Coordinators
- d) State National Guard Joint Operations Centers, and
- e) State Emergency Management Coordinators.

The data will be released via DHS coordination in support of Homeland Security, Homeland Defense, Disaster Preparedness missions. These rights include the unrestricted right to access, modify, reproduce, perform, display, and/or otherwise use the data.

5.11.3 Non-Federal Emergency Data Release License

During the time of a Presidentially-declared national emergency or crisis, non-Federal governmental disaster/emergency response agencies and/or personnel supporting the Homeland Security mission will have the full access as detailed in paragraph 5.11.1. These rights include the unrestricted right to access, use, modify, reproduce, release, perform, display, distribute and create derivative products from the data (derivative products will be hardcopy or raster products without database characteristics. Derivative products may be released to any mission partner). These license rights would exist only for the duration of the specific event or disaster, as well as throughout all pre- and post-event preparatory or wrap-up phases directly associated with the event or disaster.

5.14 Designated Local, Territorial, Tribal Government Partners Data Release License (Option)

All of the data (base data and required updates) shall be provided to DHS-designated Local, Territorial, Tribal government agencies with a license providing the unrestricted right to access, modify, reproduce, release, perform, display, distribute and/or otherwise use the data by all supporting government elements and their contractors (for government purposes), supporting Homeland Security, Homeland Defense and Disaster Preparedness missions. Derivative products created from the dataset will be releasable to mission partners.

1 The designated Lead Federal Agency will determine which non-Federal agencies receive access to this data under presidentially declared national emergencies or crises. Derivative products created from the dataset will be releasable to mission partners.